

DAILY BULL

The Daily Bull is probably not suitable for those under age 18 and should not be taken seriously... like more meteor showers!

It is of interest to note that while some dolphins are reported to have learned English -- up to fifty words used in correct context -- no human being has been reported to have learned dolphinese.

Let Us Give Thanks... for Stuff

By Nathan 'Invincible' Miller
~ Daily Bull ~

WITH THANKSGIVING RIGHT AROUND the corner, I thought it'd be appropriate to give thanks for everything this great big world of ours has to offer. It really is nice living on a planet this neat. So many good things! Thanks Earth!

-I'm thankful that there aren't many cars with spinners in Houghton.

-I am thankful that turkeys have agreed to die by the millions every year so we can stuff our faces and loosen our belts.

-I'm thankful the Lions are generous enough to lift the spirits of whichever team plays them.

-I give thanks to all the little people who are stepped on by taller people working their way to the top.

Canadian Invasion Prevention Leads to MTU-NMU Alliance

By Samantha Schall ~ Daily Bull

THE UPPER PENINSULA IS A VERY BEAUTIFUL PIECE OF land with many natural beauties, but few really know about its beauty. The land is not loved like it should be by those outside the UP. Therefore, there have been rumors traveling down from Canada that there may be an invasion of the Upper Peninsula to turn it into an extremely large natural preserve. Special permits will be given to the citizens of the Peninsula that demonstrate extreme environmental protectiveness and remove those who do not meet these requirements. The universities on the Upper Peninsula are almost guaranteed to be relocated from the Upper Peninsula because of the extreme amounts of land used by the campuses and the large amounts of gas used by the students with vehicles.

Therefore, we, the college students who are most in danger of losing our beloved Upper Peninsula campus, must defend the Upper Peninsula. An intelligence agent from the Canadian forces has informed us of a special cavalry division of the military that seems to be the most powerful part of the invasion forces.

The agent informed us of the group called the "Bear Claws." This cavalry force is like what the name implies – these forces ride bears. While this would not be a problem, the population is much afraid of hurting the endangered bear species that are in the cavalry. Therefore, the forces in the Upper Peninsula have been working on plans to protect our homes and have asked Michigan Tech students to put aside a long rivalry to defend. The Michigan Tech students have been asked to ally ourselves with several other universities on the UP, most importantly Northern Michigan University.

With this alliance, the two schools will become the heads of the Student Forces to Protect the UP, or SFPUP. The two schools are looking for volunteers for the SFPUP cavalry and infantry. Michigan Tech engineering students have been asked to create a 'cavalry beyond all cavalries': a cavalry of robotic horses. These are to be able to out-run and exhaust the Bear Claw cavalry without causing harm to anybody in their ranks. It has been speculated that the first year engineering class teams will be grouped with upperclassmen for the designing and production of the cavalry. The infantry will be made of volunteers from ...Friend or Foe? from front all schools in the SFPUP. The weapon of choice will be simple tranquilizer darts for reasons of protection.

NMU students are being asked to volunteer in large numbers and raise the involvement in the protection of the U.P. The school will also be asked to negotiate with Washington D.C. for assistance when the time of the real invasion comes. We'll need the heavy stuff – helicopters for dropping laughing gas on the Canadian invasion forces.

We may wonder if we need more fire-power, but we must remember that we must understand that the Canadians are mostly harmless in their peace loving ways so we will not harm them outright. We will simply protect ourselves from the invasion until peace talks are through. The SFPUP will be taking care of the peace talks while we protect the front lines. If any students are interested in joining the peace talks or forming a special group for the cavalry, simply contact the SFPUP when possible. We wish everyone luck. 🐾

Secret words: VP running mate of the most recent runner-up, as well as RON PAUL...oops, I gave him away.

...Thankoo from front

-I'm thankful that Facebook keeps changing so I never get bored trying to figure out how it works, over and over again.

-I am thankful for bulk bags of sour patch kids.

-I'm thankful that I do not own a single Nickelback song.

-I'm thankful for running with the little guy and drinking Jones Soda.

-I give thanks to my computer for not being a pain in the butt all these years.

-I am thankful I won't have to take another Boyer class ever again.

-I'm thankful gravity works in the southern hemisphere.

-I'm thankful that despite having spilling Jones all over it, the 4th digital camera I've owned since getting to college still works.

-I'm thankful that George Miller finally is going to make Mad Max 4: Fury Road.

-I am thankful I have been explosive-diarrhea free for at least six months.

-I'm thankful my memory has allowed me to spell 'diarrhea' correctly for the first time ever.

-I give thanks to the roof of my rental house for not leaking/caving in on me.

-I give mega thanks to all the Daily Bull members who write me articles on a mostly regular basis.

-I'm thankful that I have not been drowned in liquid nitrogen, and that Bond has not blown up my secret lair.

-I am thankful that 2012 is still a ways away and we have time to enjoy ourselves before the world comes to a catastrophically dull continued existence. 🐾
