Huskies Take Over Marquette

By Stephen Whittaker
~ Daily Bull ~

At 6:30am as the sun began to peak over horizon, a band of over two hundred huskies marched into the peaceful town of Marquette carrying automatic weapons and grenades. The scene was pure chaos. Children, seniors, college students and the working class alike were forced to stay in their homes.

The huskies, after years of being forced to pull sleds for miles, sick and tired, decided to take the town of Marquette to use as a bargaining chip to legalize the use of dogs as means of transportation. They also demanded as reparations for all the hardships they have been put through. Some of their demands include, free doggy treats for life, paid vacations to Mexico, and free healthcare (Veterinarian visits get expensive).

Global Climate Changes

By Jon 'Big O' Mahan ~ Daily Bull

Well friends, fellows, countrymen, it seems that the time has changed. For whatever reason, the climate over last night has changed, dramatically. How has it changed? Well it seems that the world has frozen over. Yes, it seems that the entire world now is covered in snow and ice, and hail. Cold completely encompasses the entire globe. For whatever reason, scientists are at a loss to explain why the only place unaffected seems to be Houghton, Michigan.

"It's simply unexplainable. We have no idea why, but it seems that the once bastion of subzero temperatures and endless feet of snow has become a tropical resort, or along those lines," commented a leading UN scientist. Despite happening only last night, people are already jumping and various band wagons to try and stake out their claims to being right. Senate and House Democrats are already claiming that they've been right all along. "This catastrophe is clearly because of our failure to prevent the carbon dioxide buildup in the atmosphere, and because of that, we have this," Barack Obama was quoting as saying.

Victoria's Secret launches its new inuit line of lingerie. Designed to help women stay warm, the new line has met terrible reception by male audiences. Sociologists predict, however, that within a few years showing arm will be the new showing cleavage.

However, differing opinions can already be heard from the right side of politics. "See!? All this time the democrats have claimed that carbon dioxide increases the temperature of the earth, and yet, now we are frozen. Clearly the problem wasn't CO2!" Limbaugh was quoted saying, with similar sound bytes coming from Glenn Beck, Sean Hannity, and other major talking heads for the Republican Party.

However, one other voice out there not getting much attention from any media is the voice of Sen. Joe Lieberman. "I simply don't know. We've been told one thing, and another thing happens, and it's supposed to be the same thing that was supposed to do another thing? Sounds like hedging you're bets, like if I said that this gun was going to kill you, and not kill you. If it kills you, the gun did it. If it doesn't, the gun did it. Sounds silly to me. I'll wait for the evidence to come in before I have any opinion on what happened."

In other related news, stocks of North Face and South Butt equipment seemed to have skyrocketed overnight, as cold wear has become fashion. Victoria's Secret is set to release its latest and newest line of "Inuit-Lingerie" full with faux fur, and full body coverage for those cold summer months.

Have you ever been stuck in a _____<sup>NOUN.1</sup>? It's a _____<sup>ADJECTIVE 1</sup> experience, let me tell you. Chicago's _____<sup>NOUN.2</sup> is by far, the worst. My plane got _____<sup>PAST TENSE VERB</sup> by _____<sup>NOUN.3</sup>! Measly little _____<sup>SAME NOUN.3</sup>! In California, nothing short of a _____<sup>NOUN.4</sup> storm would stop our planes, yet, in _____<sup>PLACE</sup>, a simple drizzle can totally _____<sup>VERB 1</sup> all air traffic! It's ridiculous. I will however _____<sup>VERB 2</sup> that I've never seen so much hospitality. A kind family from the area, offered to let me _____<sup>VERB 3</sup> with them from Wasau to Houghton. I don't know how I can possibly _____<sup>VERB 4</sup> them, but, if _____<sup>PRONOUN</sup> is/are reading this, Thank You!

The local citizens, terrified of the dogs' scary teeth and automatic weapons, are being held as captives in the town. A clear perimeter set up by the dogs has these people trapped and with limited food; as no one can get in or out of the city, the situation grows more dire by the minute.

Tentative peace talks with the president are hoped to relieve the issue, but the situation appears to be grim as the suddenly independent behavior on the huskies part has many people turned off to the whole idea of dogs having rights. PETA, when reached for comment, was in full support of the wayward canines' actions.

Ever since the dogs wearing hats incident which may or may not have happened many years ago, dogs have been fighting for their liberties to dig up the garden, chase cats, fetch a ball, or to tear up couches. Many folks are concerned that if we let these animals have a few rights, they might yet gains souls. After that, nothing could keep them under our sway. Dogs driving cars? Dogs with citizenship? These and more would plague our fair nation. PETA has been pushing for these issues for years and likely sees this as a chance to further their agenda. As rumor has it, a large brown retriever with a top hat and a scar over one eye met with PETA agents before the incident; the FBI is still looking into possible connections.

Mittens had pulled ONE TOO MANY SLEDS for ONE TOO MANY SCREAMING KIDS. KABOOM!

Clearly an agreement must be made soon as the food supply in Marquette will not last forever; who knows how long it will be before the tension results in conflict.

Ruben Rants: Cafe!!

By Ruben Garcia ~ Daily Bull

People of Michigan Tech. If you where not aware, when coming back to Michigan Tech after a break the Cafe is open the Sunday before break officially is over. While this is a good thing and most of you wicked-smart college kids already know this, it seems that Michigan Tech has overlooked this simple fact. The Cafe was open this past Sunday, as usual, but the great food-God had decided to have only one person in charge of the grill. While this would be normal for other times IT IS NOT ACCEPTABLE IF THE CAFE IS THE ONLY SOURCE OF FOOD ON CAMPUS! For God's sake, all RA's had to check in there and order food, compliments of Res-Life. While this is an instance of Res-Life actually showing a soul, it is stupid for the Cafe to think that one poor man could handle the rush. I have never seen a man make 4 quesadillas, 7 ham/cheese burgers, 3 orders of fries and 2 orders of chicken strips all at once. Kudo's to "H" as we will call him. Meanwhile, two people are standing at the cash register "ringing people up". I understand you want to keep the line moving, but give the poor guy a break. It dosen't take two people to make Bosco Sticks or pizza. Take out of wrapper, put in oven-thingy, wait untill it pops out, DONE! In the end, kudo's to the guys in the back, and Michigan Tech Cafe-runners, gain some common sense please.
