You Kids And Your Newfangled Alcoholism

By Ol' Man Hamer ~ Daily Bull

What is it with kids these days? What with the crime, drugs, promiscuity... it is just out of hand! We used to call it growing up but now everything has a name. Fat is obese, whore is sexually addicted, someone who occasionally drinks too much all the time is an alcoholic. The fuck? Can't everyone just learn some moderation?

Hell, I remember going to high school. I worked a full time job at night with a small crew cleaning a factory. After work we would drink until I had to go to school. In college I really had a good time but I learned a lot. It wasn't until I left college and entered the working world that I learned the wonders of "having a drink to unwind after work and at the dinner table and again after dinner and then with dessert and then while watching TV and then during the commercial break before the evening news and then during the evening news (markets are down)

News in Briefs: Around Town This Week

Winter Carnival Queen Announced!

In a stunning turn of events, the name of this year's Winter Carnival was announced today. Although there were many gorgeous women vying for the title, a write-in candidate overwhelmed them all to pull out the victory. All hail the 2011 Winter Carnival Queen: The EERC Tree.

Now, the EERC Tree has won in the past (multiple times), so this normally wouldn't have been such a surprise. However, since the administration cut it down last August, many felt the fine old pine wouldn't be running this year. That didn't stop it though, as the zombified remains posthumously won in a landslide, getting more votes than the all the generically good-looking female candidates combined.

In the eveningwear competition, the EERC Tree dazzled with its bark and needle dress. The judges were so amazed, they missed two of the sorority girls taking their tops off to get attention. "Hey, we're over HEEEEEEERE people!"

In the talent portion, there was singing, some dancing, even a puppet show.

However, when the Tree went up, it simply leaned at an absurd angle while volunteers set up massive fans, the force of which ended up blowing away half the audience.

When asked about the victory, the EERC Tree had this to say: "....." Honestly, I think that sums up how this glorious tree was able to secure the win and bragging rights over all of Tech for another winter.

Mineshaft Mayhem

Reports are scattered, but it appears that some idiot invited the Michigan Tech Pep Band to the Mineshaft restaurant early on Superbowl Sunday. In a further act of lunacy, someone also invited multiple members of the Houghton and Hancock high schools for some sort of "competition." Due to there being teachers and parents in attendance, the original events of underclassmen beer pong, Strip DDR, and "breaking everything in sight because we have rich parents that spoil us way too much so we have to take out our aggression on people we don't know" competitions were canceled and replaced with bowling, a one-man pizza eating contest, and Quiz Bowl. The band valiantly attempted to

JUST PLAIN WASTE!

I had twelve (12) bottles of whiskey in my cellar. My wife told me to empty the contents of each and every bottle down the sink—or else. So I said I would and proceeded with the unpleasant task.

I withdrew the cork from the first bottle and poured the contents down the sink with the exception of one glass which I drank. I extracted the cork from the next bottle and did likewise, with the exception of one glass, which I drank. I then pulled the cork from the third bottle and poured the whiskey down the sink with the exception of one glass which I drank.

I pulled the cork from the fourth sink and poured the bottle down the glass, which I drank. I pulled the bottle from the next cork and drank one sink of it and threw the rest of it down the glass.

I pulled the sink out of the next glass and poured the cork from the bottle, then I corked the sink with the glass, bottled the drink and drank the pour.

When I had everything emptied, I steadied the house with one hand, counted the bottles, corks, glasses and sinks with the other which was 29, and as the house came by I counted them again.

Finally I had all the houses, bottles, and glasses, corks and sinks counted, except one house and one bottle which I drank.

"I found this today in the Archives of the Library.

It is a poem printed by the Keweenaw print shop, hidden away in a miscellaneous folder. From what I can tell, it's most likely 50-100 years old."

distract and annoy the high schoolers, leading to the point of middle fingers, curses, and general anger from the entire group.

The bowling was a complete disaster, with the high schoolers more focused on texting and making out than actually bowling. Some of them even attempted to break the bowling balls by throwing them at walls and other hard places. The pizza eating was even worse, with a one-on-one between a skinny kid and the stereotypical "I'm fat so I can eat a lot more" kid. Although fatty's friends were yelling and taunting him to puke, he managed to finish off an entire Mineshaft pizza. With friends like that, who needs the other team taunting, eh? The last competition was a Quiz Bowl style questionnaire. Final score? 0-0, as both teams kind of wandered off because the questions were "too hard."

The pep band at least had some fun, deafening the patrons, eating delicious foods, and watching Grant Cox utterly destroy all comers in DDR. The man single-handedly cleaned out three different game machines of their tickets while all the high school girls ogled him; the man is a "Sexy A.S.S." after all. After finishing off all the available food (and some of the booze), the pep band disappeared, at least until Winter Carnival, where the 0-22-2 (last 24 games) Hockey Huskies arrive back into town to defend their honor.

and then before bed". It's a rather easy existence to maintain; everyone you love learns not to fuck with you cause you work hard and this glass won't fill itself.

So if my generation didn't suffer from alcoholism what should we do about this one? Simple answer: go back to the way things were, when we didn't talk about anything until much too much time had passed to make a difference anyway. THAT was progress. Yeah that was it! Just ignore it until it goes away. Is there an easier solution than that?

Your photo could be the next big thing at the library... and at the Digital Studio, we don't mess around when we say big...

WE MEAN REALLY BIG... LIKE THIS BIG!

Seriously, we'll actually print the winner's photo this big, matte it, frame it, and display it prominently in the library, and give them a print of their poster and a 16 GB iPod nano to take home, two runners up will receive an MTU blanket, and a print of their poster, and three honorable mentions will receive a poster print of their choice. Also, all submissions will be added to the University Archives for posterity.

If you like that thought you should probably enter the first annual...
