

DAILY BUZZZ

The Daily Bull is probably not suitable for those under age 18 and should not be taken seriously... like classes during Spring Fling!

Friday, April 15, 2011

"For the record, the vuvuzela is not my enemy — and I even have, for reasons of self-defence installed a mini-vuvu with surprisingly powerful performance levels around my neck — though I miss hearing the crescendo of noise from the crowd that should accompany a promising attack on goal or a goal itself. Instead, of course, there is the monotone drone — a constant that belies the ebbs and flows of a game."
— Richard Calland

Spring Fling is Awesome

By Liz Fujita ~ Editor

Spring Fling is one of my favorite times of the year. Even though classes aren't cancelled officially, it's a day for everyone to go be goofy around campus.

My first year, Nathan Invincible made a giant cardboard delivery train and gave people Bulls. Also, waterballoons.

My second year, we wrote teh digits of Pi all the way across campus. Everywhere.

And in this, my third year, we will raise the bar even further.

GO FORTH, PEOPLE. CUT CLASS AND HAVE FUN! CELEBRATE BEFORE THE DEATH OF FINALS IS UPON US!

What is your favorite instrument?

By Steve Whittaker ~ Vuvu Afficionado

Recently I was asked what my favorite instrument was. Until now I did not give it much thought. Then it hit me! What is more inspiring than the hum of a vuvuzela? Yes a vuvuzela! They are God's gift to sports arenas everywhere.

What is all the buzz about? What other instrument can be heard a continent away? When the World Cup was in Africa the delightful hum could be heard all the way into Europe and some Parts of Western Asia.

Yes. With its grand scale the vuvuzela has captured my heart, and if you listen to its mind altering hum, you too will fall in love with this instrument.
