

DAILY BULL

The Daily Bull is probably not suitable for those under age 18 and should not be taken seriously... like shenanigans in the office!

A sympathetic Scot summed it all up very neatly in the remark, "You should make a point of trying every experience once, excepting incest and folk dancing."

Pizza Poll

By Cameron Long ~ Daily Bull

Hey you! No, not you – YOU, c'mere! You like pizza. No, it wasn't a question. "You like pizza" is a universal truth; it's physiologically impossible to reject pizza. Now that we got that settled, what's your favorite variety? The options are virtually endless. There are the classics: pepperoni, meat lover's, cheese, supreme, and sausage, and the Hawaiian, but there are also relatively new kinds, like barbecued chicken, cheeseburger, and meatball.

There are more toppings available than the number at which you could shake a, or even two, sticks. There are meats (pepperoni, sausage, bacon, ham, chicken, duck, salami, prosciutto, venison, turkey, meatballs), seafood (anchovies, lobster, shrimp, salmon, tuna, calamari), cheeses (mozzarella, feta, ricotta, goat, cheddar, brie, munster), and vegetables ...see Peice'a' pizza on back

Guide to Charming the Ladies Vol. 2

By Steve Whittaker ~ Daily Bull

In this edition of Charming the Ladies we discuss methods for dressing and how to act. With the tips included in this edition, no ladies will be able to resist your unique charm. And charm is what this guide is all about.

The best way to attract the ladies to you is to put up a particular front. There are many ways to approach this. Here we shall discuss one such method, but keep in mind there are many different ways to approach this.

Method 1: The Bro approach, made easy! For this first method, the Bro approach, we shall focus on the style and attitude you should use to impress girls most effectively.

Style: Let us start from the top, hair. Hair should be cut in a way that allows for optimal use of hair products such as gels and styling putties. One popular styling is the Fohawk or Faux Hawk. This is essentially taking your hair and making a pseudo (fake) mohawk by using gel or putty to force all your hair up and into the middle of your scalp. Many ladies drool over this. Famous users of the fohawk include David Beckham and Blake Lewis. Clothing? There are a number of options here, but some guidelines you might want to follow. Collars are always a good thing to turn to, but not always necessary. Wife-beaters (tank tops for men) are good too, but with the stipulation that they are in some way related to a sport, and particularly if that sport is something along the lines of lacrosse or tennis. In general, shirts should be sized to small to accentuate your muscles by being skin-tight. Note: If you happen to be a scrawny type the tight shirt may not work as well for you. Another strategy used by bro's since the being brodom is to do double, and perhaps triple popped collars.

Attitude: Attitude is as important as style

(artichoke hearts, many kinds of olives, mushrooms, bell peppers, hot peppers, tomatoes, spinach, onions, avocado). Then there are sauces (tomato, white, barbecue) and many herbs, spices and seasonings (basil, oregano, red pepper, fennel, cilantro). Sometimes overlooked are the options for crusts. Three standards are: what we call "hand-tossed," thin crust, or "New York style," and deep dish, or "Chicago style." Stuffed crust and "pan" crust are just gimmicks.*

*The above paragraph is not intended to be a comprehensive list of everything you could put on a pizza

As the most common, hand-tossed pizza is everywhere. Some of my favorites include the "Sooner Schooner" at The Hideaway in Norman, Oklahoma and the "Greek Pie" at Cascarelli's of Homer, Michigan. The Sooner Schooner is my all-time favorite pizza. Made with the Hideaway's Red Sauce and topped with mozwhen it comes to pulling off the bro. Though there are a few different bro attitudes, the one I that will work best for lady getting purposes is the "slightly douche bag". The slightly douche bag requires the user to be some what arrogant or possibly assholish. Just keep in mind the thought that you are better than everyone around you. With that mindset you're sure to feel confident and the ladies won't be able to resist your macho charm.

A Few Other Tips: When it comes to girls that love the tough macho type, the more asshole you can portray to other guys, the better chance she'll see it and like it. If another guy starts making headway on a girl you are trying for, the simple solution is to just beat him up. If he's bloody and bruised she will see how much better of a guy you are. Feel free to brag as much as possible about yourself when first meeting the girl, they are dying to here about your many exploits such as your spectacular game of tennis, your father's yacht, how much you can bench, or any other story you can make up that makes you seem like a pompous rich prick. Above all else, be a dick, because as we all know from Team America, "dicks fuck pussies and assholes."

That's pretty much it, follow those guidelines and you'll be broing out in no time at all. The ladies definitely love a bro, especially to these specifications. Keep reading! Next time when we discuss our second method. Until then keep on charming the ladies!

[Editor's note: If you notice any little flecks of nasty stuff on your Bull, it's because I projectile vomited everywhere while reading this article – it smelled like hair gel mixed with Jagerbomb and swagger.]

Pong on the Atari Review

This week we find a new video game on the market to be played on the brand new Atari system. While we've seen some game that are lacking in quality for the Atari at its release, this classic game or tennis will brighten up any disappointed gamers.

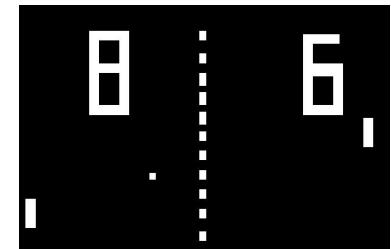

This competitive 2 player game has been designed with the high-end graphics of the Atari system in mind. The contrast of the black and white is especially easy on the eyes of hard core gamers who are planning to run tournaments all night. We haven't seen better graphics than these in any recent release.

by Sam Schall ~ Time Travelling Correspondent

Pong also was able to release sound track with the game, though this may be the one low point for the game. The soundtrack has only 2 good songs on it and both are already featured in the game throughout play, so buying the soundtrack is really just a waste of money and ears.

his game, was able to new controller to make movement easy and pain-free. With previous controls, the movement of the game would come out choppy and unrealistic, while the new knob controls are perfect. Smart move, Atari, smart move.

So, we finally see a good game for the new Atari console. The game
