Stupid Smart Phones

by Kay McMahon ~ Daily Bull

You all think they're fucking wonderful - playing Words With Friends, checking in at Perkins, Wal-Mart, MTU, and even funerals. Iphones, Ipads, Androids, slidey-keyboard-things. Let me tell you something: I just don't get how to use these fucking spaceships phones. Thus I have compiled a list ultimately proving why "Smart" phones are fucking STUPID.

For starters you can't even fit the lot of them in your fucking pockets. Not your front pocket, not your shirt pocket, not your back pocket, not sixties-style-rolled-up-in-your-shirt-sleeve or your sock. They just absolutely don't fit anywhere. So then what? "Oh hey guy, I'm just hanging out in the pool with my smart phone..." I mean really, we can't leave them in our car, locker, or basically anywhere because they're so fucking valuable, but we can't even fit them in our pockets.

Everyone in their life wants to be, at least once, a badass. For some, it comes easier. Almost naturally. For others...well, not so much. From my whole 21 years of experience of life, I give you some pro-tips of how to become (or just act) like a badass.

Kick down doors: nothing looks cooler than constantly kicking down doors in all those neat action movies. Since you go to Tech you probably don't have the physical prowess to literally kick down a door. Your best option is to simply kick doors open. Make sure it's not a wussy kick, either. We don't want none of those silly broken ankles. The key is to chamber when you kick, and make sure to not lose your balance!

Become a martial arts master: All those movie badasses are masters in at least 8 different types of martial arts. But who has time to do all that real training? And they get punched in the face and stuff. Way too time consuming for our little crash course here. The more badass martial arts that allow you to kill a man with your bare hands include muay thai, krav maga, ninjutsu, sambo and silat. But you might get killed or seriously hurt during training. Quick fix: Tae Bo DVDs. You'll look like you actually know how to kick and punch people, all while getting a darn good workout. Just in time to get ready for swimsuit season.

Always have a five o'clock shadow: It's all about the facial hair. This is one place that many females fall behind in the badassness. Because, clearly, if they can grow a rugged start to a beard, no one is going to fuck with them anyhow. But for all those with babyfaces that want to you won't believe.

Mother. Fucking. Autocorrect: Are you kidding me? When I want to spell "gangster" it always says "Hamster". I've totally been spending most of my life in a hamster's paradise. Or worse, when someone else sends you a message and it comes in as a fucked up autocorrect on your phone. "The thought of losing you is devastating...." Oh that's what you meant to say? I wasn't a happy camper when I read "The thought of plowing you was devastating..."

So lastly, you want to try to open your God-forsaken MTU email on your dumb-phone. Not only is zimbra down and it's not ever going to work again, you have to learn how to sync all your fucking emails, and contacts and login information on to your gmail email app. And not only does it suck, but until I figure it out you can bet your bottom dollar that I'm plowing all my classes until I do. ☺ look rugged and more badass-ish, make-up is your best friend. Just don't tell anyone, and make sure to get the sweat-proof stuff so it won't run down your neck during your badass adventures.

Huge. Fucking. Boots: Here, style varies between men and women, but one constant remains. They must be black. No matter what. And never get dirty or uncomfortable. Guys need to wear ridiculous combat boots, and women need to run around in black hooker heels.

If you don't own a pair of black kick-ass boots, simply spray paint an old pair of winter boots and hope no one pays too much attention. And ladies, make sure the heel on your boots can double as a weapon, and that it's physically impossible to actually function wearing said boots. Because that just makes sense.

Scars: If you don't have them, get them from doing stupid things and then make up way cooler stories than what actually happened. "Yeah, see these three scars on my shin? Totally got in a fight with a bear, and won. No, it's not from slipping in the shower while shaving and losing control of the razor. Shut up."

With these few tips, you will be well on your way to looking like a badass. Remember that confidence is key. If anyone says you aren't a badass, just punch them (however pathetically that might be) and run away in your awesome spray paint boots, saying you have to go save the world. Works every time. ☺
