MUBBIN'

Kay McMinion ~ Daily Bull

Noun: a building on MTU's campus that houses the bookstore, student government, student organizations, a cafeteria, and various recreational activities.

Verb: (Mubbin') the act of shooting the shit while eating overly priced lunches and procrastinating all your homework.

The Memorial Union Board has long been a well-known building MTU and the local community. It is where we eat our lunch, hang out in our student org offices, and likely attend long and tedious business meeting for various school functions/organizations.

Bookworming

Olivia Zajac ~ Daily Bull

Literary nerds rejoice! A new social movement is sweeping the nation. Originating somewhere in the depths of The Internet came a new trend in which young, single people are refusing to have sex with someone if there is not a bookcase in their house, apartment, etc. Referred to as "bookworming", the 20- and 30-somethings are making it sexy to be literate. The amount of out-of-wedlock pregnancies and "I swear she fell down the stairs" doctor visits has decreased dramatically, and are expecting to continue to drop. The unnamed founder of the trend wanted to increase the chances that they themselves got laid, but also that whole making smarter people for a better tomorrow thing, too.

Reports have been confirmed that this is, in fact, the real reason that Jersey Shore went off the air.

MUB is our place of refuge in the long bullshit filled school days. Last week I watched a group of syllabus-tired upperclassmen huddle around a table and play Cards against Humanity. "This season on Man Vs. Wild: getting so angry that you pop a boner." This quote calmed my hurried, worn-out soul.

Just last Friday I saw a wide eyed freshman looking for the bowling alley as he aimlessly walked the rails and stairs in and around the cafeteria. I laughed to myself as I watched him shift in and out of the cafeteria.

While Mubbin', people get loud and rowdy. I once

Former cast member The Situation commented, "Well, now that all these girls think they're better n' smarterer than me and stuff just 'cause the only books I have is a stack of Maxim. I mean, some of those words are really hard to say. And after I've been pumping booze into them and they still have enough brain cells to tell me no, I don't have a thick enough dictionary for them? Bullshit!"

Local libraries near college campuses everywhere have been overrun with horny boys, and girls alike. "I've never seen so many college students so excited about novels before. And not even for a required class! They just say it's for in their free time, but I know better. It's that new bookworming fad. I mean, not that I'm encouraging kids to have sex, but I'm glad all those nice, dorky boys and girls will have their moments to shine. I just make sure to have a lovely stack of Sex-Education books stacked by the check out. And condoms. Just in case. I don't want any unruly stains in my books," she reported, finger wagging the whole time she lectured.

Book nerds that have never been able to draw attention of the opposite sex are now turning into the well known sluts and man-whores of their tri-city areas. These young men and women have started bookworming clubs out of their apartments and houses. While this may sound like some sort of whorehouse, you have to remember; these are still the introverted nerds who would die if you poisoned them and put the antidote in the middle of a raging party. These clubs mostly consist of digging through stacks on stacks on stacks of books until the smell of the old paper and ink gives someone a Moby Dick, and then shit gets real dirty, real quick.

Since bookworming has hit mainstream media, the demand for books has, unfortunately, allowed less than talented authors to receive more money than they really deserve (I'm looking at you, Stephanie Meyers!). Sales of romance novels have nearly tripled, but those that bought the romance novels were not the ones reporting having been a part of bookworming. The founder had this to say, "Bookwormers aren't stupid. We can see through a silly farce like having a stack of fifty cent trashy romance novels conveniently stacked near your bed. No shelf, no real literature, no sex anymore. So either get used to masturbation, or start reading." 🐮 dodged a far-shooting mayonnaise packet from an overtired-hung-over-very-hungry Mubber. I have come to learn that the true mubbers schedule their classes together so they can coordinate the best mubbin' times. Mub til ya can't mub no more mayne. Words to live by if there ever were any. 🐮
