Police Officer Misinterprets 'Protect and Serve'

By Jon "Big O' Mahan
~ Daily Bull

A 32 year old police officer from New York has been brought in on cannibalism charges after it was found he misunderstood the terms 'Protect and Serve'

The police department first got suspicious when bodies or body parts would suddenly go missing from the morgue or crime scenes. They were always fresh bodies, and the resulting missing body parts eventually started letting criminals off the hook due to the flawed evidence. After piecing together the evidence and finding the lowest common denominator, it became clear that a police officer was at fault

The officer, who will not be named, apparently had plans, that were somewhat carried out, to take bodies

Yesterday, I took a step into what I thought was the more gentle, graceful, not painful side of exercise. I went to my first, actual yoga class to try and relax after a stressful few (note: 7) weeks. I was expecting some going on. Okay, so, just uh...follow the instructor. I can squat. I can squat like a beast! Boom! First pose mastered. Oh, if only it remained that easy. The first five minutes went something like this: Victory squat, forward bend, mountain pose, five star pose, victory squat, mountain pose, victory squat, forward bend, victory squat, wide leg forward bend, victory squat, victory squat, victory squat... dear lord my thighs burn holy fuck please do something else.

It continued, with this dude in track pants just flawlessly folding himself in the weirdest positions with ease, and me just being a huge, non-flexible strugglebus. At one point, balanced precariously on the ball of one foot, arms stretched out at

You have an opportunity to be extraordinarily creepy. I hope you take advantage of it.

Fill the grid with the digits 1-9 so as not to repeat a digit in any row or column so the digits within each heavily outlined box or boxes (cage) will produce the target number shown in that cage by using the operation (addition, subtraction, multiplication, or division) shown by the symbol after the numeral. For example, the notation 6+ means that the numerals in the cage should add up to 6 and the notation 48x means that by multiplying the numbers in the cage you will get 48.

of those he failed to protect, and served them as various forms of food to people. From chilli to burgers to steak, the police officer came up with more creative forms and ways to serve delicious people.

The friends and families of those used in his plot have been notified, as well as anyone and everyone whom has possibly had contact with the police officer's meat. ☺ some angle and other leg going back, I almost kicked someone in the head. Oops. My self-awareness is apparently off. Or maybe it's because my ankles are shaking. Have you ever had your ankles shake? IT IS A WEIRD FEELING, LET ME TELL YOU. And the person I nearly bonked in the head with my foot was fellow Bull writer, Liz. She seemed less confused than I at times. There were lots of times we exchanged very confused looks with one another. Then, we got to sideways crane.

Now, I can't do the crane position forward, let alone sideways. To explain it quickly, one gets to crane by squatting all the way down, on the balls of your foot, putting your hands shoulder width apart in front of you, putting your knees/thigh area on the back of your arms, and then tipping forward and hope you can balance all of your weight on your forearms and hands. Now, sideways crane involves basically the same thing, but you have your hands to one side, and then you balance all of yourself on a single arm, the other is just there to help distribute weight. I think. I can't do it. I'm pretty pleased with myself if I go through the day without walking into a table or the side of a door.

Towards the end, we had the option to "self pose". There were multiple, note, MULTIPLE people who just suddenly went into a headstand. I chose child's pose, which is more or less laying in a small heap on your mat and pray no one sees you sobbing. Class wrapped up with corpse pose, which is literally lying on your back on the mat, and "releasing all the tension in your body". I left that damn class more sore than when I had walked in. There was nothing graceful about how I moved through any of those poses. I was just glad I didn't fall over, actually hit anyone else, or relax to the point that I would be that person that farts during plow pose.

TL;DR: I did yoga, it was hard, but it was awesome. The end. ☺

Friday & Saturday
October 26-27, 2012
Houghton, MI

Join us for a fall weekend in the Upper Peninsula's beautiful Copper Country for another exciting round of the Oldest, Toughest, Meanest
Rally on the Circuit!

Volunteers Welcome!!
Get close to the Action!
Meet the Teams!
Free swag & banquet dinner!

LSPR needs you!! - Volunteer info

Rallying in America wouldn't exist without the help of hundreds of volunteers who help make events run smoothly and safely. Closing down public roads and orchestrating a competition involving many teams of cars and crews is no easy task. However, being a volunteer is the ultimate experience for a rally fan. You'll be a part of the rally and meet all the drivers and crews. Best of all, the volunteers get as close to the action as the drivers do! Thank you!! (courtesy of Rally America)

Pre-register online @ the LSPR website to get logged into the database. You still have to check in with the Control Chief on rally weekend to get your worker assignment, swag bag & Tshirt.

Worker on-site Registration
Rally HQ - Country Inn & Suites
919 Razor Back Dr, Houghton

Thu Oct 25 5-10pm
Fri Oct 26 9-11am

Awards banquet & dinner:
7pm, Sat Oct 27th — Dee Stadium,
700 Lakeshore Dr, Houghton.
Each worker will receive one ticket to the awards banquet. (Additional tickets can be purchased for $5 each at registration.)

Positions available include Time Control,
Stage Marshal and Spectator Control.
Also specialized positions for Amateur
(HAM) Radio & Medical Services..
Consider volunteering, we appreciate it!!

Be prepared to spend a full day & night in the woods. Some items to consider:

Vehicle filled with gas
Food & water (and trash bag)
Warm clothes & sturdy shoes
Foul weather gear & umbrellas
Flashlight, lanterns, maps
Lawn chairs, blankets
First-aid kit, toilet paper
Stage schedule, spectator guide
(a few extra copies of these are nice to handout to spectators)
