A Day in the Life of MTU Freshman Girl

By Olivia Zajac ~ Daily Bull

It is not worth an intelligent man's time to be in the majority. By definition, there are already enough people to do that.

Michigan Tech Mad Science: Solving the Energy Crisis With Bongos, Detergent, and Clipboards

By Chase "MacGyver" Peterson ~ Daily Bull

So if you are like me (and I pray to all powerful Athiesmo that you're not, I'm like the Highlander, there can be only one of me) there are days when you are just sick and tired of shelling out too damn much cash for gas, and unless you happen to be a Saudi prince (if you are, umm, I'm currently in the market for a new dad, so let's talk.)

The first thing we need to do to decrease our dependence on generating power from oil, coal, or the suffering of baby seals is very simple, we need to take away everyone's detergent and make it a strictly regulated governmental commodity

OMG guys, it liked, snowed over break! That's totes awesome! I now have a justified reason to wear my super cute furry boots. Why are those older kids pointing at them and laughing? So what if they have a heel. I mean, I've been spending like FOREVER going to the SDC to get my butt to look good for leggings and yoga pants season. So what if I wanna flaunt it a bit? Okay so maybe I missed a few group meetings for ENG 1101 but they all know I'm the smartest and do the most work. So that totally makes up for it. Ugh. My super expensive Tech winter hat is getting wet from all this snow. I didn't pay $50 for this thing to get ruined (but my parents did lol)!

Omg I'm so glad I don't live in McNair, because I would be just soooooosososososos embarrassed if I ever fell walking on campus. I grew up in Michigan so I'm totally used to the snow and why is no one walking on this side of the sidewalk- FLUMPCRASHBANGLOL Uuuuughhhhhhh I think I broke my tailbone! I need to be 10 minutes early to class still and now I'm crying and a group of guys only gave me a 7 for my landing and now my butt is wet and I can't get up and now my eyelashes are frozen together because owwwwww it hurts!

(You don't like it? Become a wealthy oil tycoon and adopt me dammit!) With this new found scarcity we will then install super-ultra-high-capacity batteries in the form of clipboards in everyone's cars and homes. These clipboards-batteries will have their own charging mechanism, and there is nothing better to charge batteries than bongos. That's right, I said bongos, and I'm not talking about the bongos that those nice naked women on the internet have. I'm talking about bongos with a kinetic/sonic transformer that will take both the kinetic energy from the person striking the bongo and the residual waveform and convert it into electrical energy that can be stored for later use (so break out the "water tobacco pipe" and crank whatever it is you kids listen to these days) and everyone beat off to charge your batteries.

You might be wondering why we had to take away everyone's detergent to make this happen? Isn't it obvious? We need to turn everyone into hippies to make this really work, and the first thing that hippies don't do - that normal, well adjusted people do - is shower and clean their clothes. With this newfound respect for beating the hell out of bongos and boot-leg detergent maybe that will drive demand down low enough so I can finally fill up my Saturn without needing to take out another student loan. ☹

Oh. No cute boy is gonna help me up? Guess I'm okay then...

Ew. There are people who are still wearing shorts? Don't they know they're gonna get hypothermia? I learned all about that from my biology class and they should have a super awesome parka, gloves, hat, scarf and like three layers on like me! Lol they're gonna get so cold and they deserve it for laughing at me for slipping. I think someone pushed me 'cause I've never slipped on ice before.

OHMIGOD WHY IS FISHER SO HOT?! IT'S LIKE 80 DEGREES IN HERE! WHY IS EVERYONE ELSE IN T-SHIRTS? DID I MISS AN IMPORTANT EMAIL FROM LES COOK? Uuuuugh everything is dripping and my boots are squeaky and uuuuughhhh. And I didn't get that homework done over break but it's just mean to assign stuff over break

because like, I have to go spend time with my family and my BFFs from high school because we will stay super close friends forever! The professor will understand, if I just cry a little bit he'll let me turn it in late. Wait...he doesn't care? It was in the syllabus? NOT FAIR.
Why is it dark outside? It's only 4pm.

I still have classes today and it's dark out. How am I supposed to go socialize? What if some creepy guy tries to like, abduct me or something? IT'S DARK, IT CAN TOTALLY HAPPEN OMG. Must travel in a pack of at least 3 other females for safety, all the way back to DHH. Just because of like the rapists that run rampant on campus. Totally. ☹
