

Invincible's Guide to the Keweenaw, Pt. 3

by Nathan "Invincible" Miller ~ Daily Bull Immortal

Every week I try to highlight a special place to visit in the Keweenaw, since the worst thing you can do in our area is not enjoy all the amazing scenery we have to offer. This week's spot isn't off the map - it's Hungarian Falls, which is arguably one of the most visited places around. Usually I wouldn't highlight such a famous place already, but I'm making an exception because it's been in the news quite a lot recently.

Hungarian Falls is actually an entire gorge full of waterfalls along Dover Creek, just above Hubbell and Tamarack City. The main falls gets a lot of the credit for the fame, as it is the largest at easily over 50 feet tall. The middle falls, which has one of the most beautiful drops you'll find in the U.P., is around 25 feet tall and is by far the most popular to stop and gander at. A tiny drop lies directly above these falls on the upstream side. These falls are all located on Michigan DNR land and are open to everyone's enjoyment.

Finally, we have the uppermost falls far above the impounded pond and dam. Often overlooked, these falls are as high as the middle falls and feature an impressive cascade down a rocky basalt face. It was this drop that was put up for sale last winter, and after an impressive show of community fundraising support, was purchased by the Keweenaw Land Trust (KLT) this past September. Now in the public trust, the 10-acre parcel that contains the dam, pond, and uppermost falls will remain open to the public forever.

Yours truly works for the KLT and helped make all that happen. Now I'm invited - see Blarfengard Blarfengard on back

STUDIO

PIZZA

PIZZAS PIZZA LOVERS LOVE!
Daily Specials at www.thestudiopizza.com
10% Discount for All Students
Downtown Hancock, across from Finlandia

Studio Pizza Actually Tastes As Good As Our Ads Say! Those Other Pizzas Don't!

www.thestudiopizza.com
482-5100

Student Feels Like He and His Roommate Don't Get Out Anymore

by RiCO Bastian ~ Mr. Burns

It was reported earlier today that MTU student Cori Anbista can't help but feel that him and his roommate, Jerry Molt, may be drifting apart, and have been for some time.

"We never go out anymore," Anbista said. "He just comes back from class and goes straight up to his bed with his iPad and doesn't come down. Maybe he's depressed. I can't help but worry about him."

Though Anbista feels as though he and his roommate don't connect anymore, he still recalls a time last year when the two of them were closer.

"Oh, it was so much fun at first, getting to know each other, going out to try new things, a party every weekend. Now I'm lucky if we go to the dining hall for dinner together."

Cori has also been growing more and more concerned with Jerry's distant behavior, citing occasions when he won't see him for days at a time.

"Sometimes he'll unexpectedly leave for the whole weekend without even telling me. He just leaves me a note on Thursday saying he'll be back on Sunday." Anbista said, "I don't even know where he's going. I'm worried that he might be living with someone else."

Anbista worries that the disconnect between the two is in some way his fault, thinking that perhaps he has failed Molt as a roommate.

"Am I not good enough for him anymore?" Anbista asked. "I mean, I know I haven't exactly been the tidiest roommate, and my alarm may wake him up from time to time, but that's all. Oh God, it's all my fault. I bet he's found another roommate with a 48" TV, a nice comfy futon, and a fridge full of Capri Suns." However, Anbista hasn't abandoned all hope just yet for him and his roommate.

see Lee Smith on back

Maize!

Laws are like sausages, it is better not to see them being made.

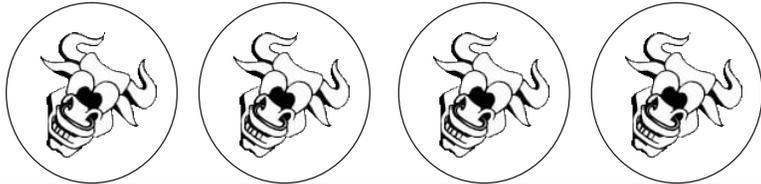

- Otto von Bismarck

from Blarfengard Blarfengard on front ing you to attend our official dedication for our newest project, the Hungarian Falls Nature Area. It is to be held this coming Saturday, October 12th, from 2-5 PM near the uppermost falls. We'll have a cider toast at the ceremony, which begins at 3 PM. Tours will be offered throughout the afternoon and KLT staff and I will be around to thank everyone and dole out sweet "I Helped Top Off Hungarian Falls" stickers. You gotta attend to get your hands on one of these bad boys.

Now that we've purchased the land, the important work of keeping it in nice shape begins. Already we have a senior design class led by Prof. Stan Vitton out there assessing the dam and historical uses of the area, as well as volunteers building a trail on the far side of the pond across from the parking area. We're hoping to cut down on the destructive garbage bonfires people have up there and make it more pristine for everyone's enjoyment. This includes installing an informational kiosk, picnic benches, and signs so nobody gets lost.

All in all, I've been happy to work on this project because I know it's a favorite spot for students, residents, and tourists to visit. I hope that everyone treats the area with respect so that we can all enjoy this special place for generations. Come out and celebrate with us!

If you would like The Bull in your email daily, email bull@mtu.edu with "Add me to the list" in the subject line!

from Lee Smith on front

"Before spring break last year, we started watching Downton Abbey together, and it was wonderful," Anbista said. "We got all caught up on it, and then started tuning in to watch the new episodes on Sunday. Then the season three finale came. I don't want to be a spoiler, so I'll just say when that thing happened at the end, we were yelling and screaming at the TV together. But then, after that, it's like we lost our connection. I wish season four would come sooner. I'm hoping that maybe it'll help put the spark back into our roommateship."

When asked about his roommate situation, Molt had the following to say.

"Yeah, Cori's a good roommate. Could use a little bit more cleaning, but that's about it. Now if you'll excuse me, I'm just gonna get back to the Sopranos."

Pic O' The Day

With the government shut down in full swing, Hillary Clinton's cat (a present from husband President Bill Clinton), Mr. Tibbles, takes control of the United States government, moving to pass a bill guaranteeing exactly two belly rubs and fish for all.

GREAT SON OF LIFE Alex Dinsmoor	GRAND VIZIER Elise Conley	USURER Rico Bastian
MEAL TICKET Zachary Evans	SECRETARIAT Kara Bakowski	ADVISOR Ser David d'Olson

Typewriter Monkeys: Liz 'Riz' Fujita, Nathan 'Invincible' Miller, Jeanine Chmielewski, Jeremy 'Mr. Sunshine' Loucks, Veronica Tabor, Chase Peterson, Corey Tindall, Theresa Tran, Abigail Skibowski, Evan Krettek, and Mr. Tibbles.

©2013 by the Daily Bull, a non-profit organization. All rights reserved. Articles may be freely distributed electronically or on late night talk shows provided credit is given, and that this notice is included. The Daily Bull reserves the right to refuse any advertisements or articles without reason. All letters sent to the editor (on paper or to bull@mtu.edu) will be treated as material to be published unless expressly stated otherwise by the sender. Original works printed in the Daily Bull remain the property of the creator, however the Daily Bull reserves the right to reprint any submissions in future issues unless specifically asked not to do so by the creator. All opinions presented are purely those of the writer and do not reflect the opinions of the University or the Daily Bull. If you keep reading this small text, the first Bull passed after the reinstatement of government will be a choose-your-own-adventure-style document.

The Daily Bull would like to thank the Daily Bull for buying our own damn printer that this publication is printed on. We would also like to thank the Student Activity Fee for helping to pay for our paper and toner costs.

Advertising inquiries, questions & comments should be directed to bull@mtu.edu

You Tube /user/thedailybull8008

Check us out online! All the cool kids are doing it.

HEY YOU!

Are you an able-bodied person who thinks that you're funny, even if your friends don't? If so, then you could write for The Bull! We are always looking for students to come join our staff and write for the paper you know and love!

Everyone is invited to join, be you a first year, senior, or cave monster!

Meetings are on Wednesdays at 9:15PM in Walker 144! Feel free to email bull@mtu.edu with any and all questions you may have!