Pornhub is Overrated. Here are 20 sites to Use Instead

Unnamed Coach

We all know you spend some time every so often browsing the shadier side of the internet with your filthy ASMR videos and your makeup unboxings and whatnot. But of all the sites people tend to go to that they totally shouldn't, Pornhub is definitely at the top of that list. Not because you end up on Santa's naughty ( ;) ) list for going to it; because the site is trash by comparison. Here are some sites that are far better and much more worth your while than a normie free porn site.

Farmers Only.com

Are you a farmer? Are you alone? Well, then you should head to FarmersOnly.com, a dating site, for Farmers only. "What if I'm not a farmer?" you ask. Never fear! There's always Grindr.

Cornhub

When someone says "The Hub", this is what they mean.

hemansings.com

Do I need explain more?

MySpace.com

It still exists! I know: Shocker. But it has rebranded a little since you last knew it... Emo phase. Happens to the best of us.

Poptropica

Honestly, Club Penguin will work as well. Dust off that old account, scrounge up your old universal password, and boot it up. You may/ may not regret it.

Cool Math Games

Since the death of Flash, it hasn't been quite what it used to be, but still is worth a visit.

Ducks are the Best

Theuselessweb.site

Ducks! Who could complain!

Ninja Flex

mendrok.com

I didn't know I needed this in my life until I went to it and witnessed it in its full glory.

Koalastothemax.com

You're not real unless you actually spend the time to divide all the dots down and get the koala-tea picture hidden in them.

Download More Ram.com

It's just so satisfying, in a frustrating watch-a-slow-loading-bar kinda way. Whatever you do, DON'T CLICK the link for more information.

World Heritage Site Map

<https://whc.unesco.org/en/interactive-map/>

If you're a geography nerd, or just like looking at cool stuff, this one genuinely is worth looking at. The amount of wack stuff on this planet is wild man.

Self Plug! Want to see an archaic website that we forget exists? Then head on over. And keep an eye- it might not be archaic for long...

Another McNair Portal To Hell Discovered

Chell Wheatley

East McNair resident Chad McOxLong walked out of his dorm hall on his way to the dining hall, hungry and ready to go get some pasties for dinner. It was after dark, but what can you ask for at 5 o'clock in Houghton? However, he wouldn't ever get the chance to consume the delectable Yooper cuisine. McOxLong slipped on the ice under the snow on the slope to the drain in the middle of the path, and slid down towards the drain. In an instant, the drain cover flew off, and a glowing red crevice opened in the earth in its stead, through which could be heard the screams of the damned and the wails of students unprepared for an exam week that is approaching all too fast. Witnesses could do nothing but look on in horror as Chad was sucked down into the fiery depths, before the snapped shut and he was lost forever.

Chad was just another in a series of unassuming residents sucked up by an abnormally red sphincter and left much worse off for it. Of those, the mysterious chthonic portal accounts for at least half. It is reported to only open when someone eats shit on that specific slope and get munched instead of getting munchies. Still, the sheer number of residents who have fallen victim to it sure is a number.

The appearance of this portal is of great concern, especially to MTU maintenance, who is tasked with disposing of demonic gateways. A similar portal was discovered last year on top of the bridge between West McNair and the dining hall, which took significant effort and many Stay-Puffed Mega marshmallows to close. "While Jorge Coito's ghosthunting team is charged with paranormal and undead containment, they leave the hell stuff to us." One maintenance manager told the Bull while inspecting the drain.

The greatest difficulty with containing this portal seems to be getting it to open. While last year's portal was always open, just in a hidden location, this portal only opens at the prospect of a tasty human sacrifice. They've thought about testing non-human subjects, but the portal experts say it is unlikely to work. "First off, the only animal that will wipe out as dramatically as a human is a dog, and not only can we not use dogs for obvious reasons, but hell can't take dogs. All dogs go to heaven, after all."

Currently, experimental test rigs with ropes are being prepared, but a simpler, more elegant solution also in the works is to secure an NMU student to use instead. In the meantime, officials are advising McNair students to just go through the dorm instead.
