Keweenaw Pride launches the 7 Healthy Habits initiative

Catboys United

Keweenaw Pride has announced new initiatives dedicated to making MTU a better place. In addition to Keweenaw Pride, these new initiatives are called Keweenaw Lust, Keweenaw Gluttony, Keweenaw Sloth, Keweenaw Wrath, Keweenaw Greed, and Keweenaw Envy. Each department is specialized to help fellow Huskies with various issues plaguing our campus.

Keweenaw Lust aims to provide students with sexual education and information on consent. Sponsored by the Title IX division of MTU, Keweenaw Lust provides detailed resources on contraceptive access and sexual health care. Reports say Keweenaw Lust provides free condoms with Blizzard's face on them. This fact has not been checked, however, we expect to see Blizzard Condoms in the near future because it would be funny.

Keweenaw Gluttony aims to solve hunger among the student population by establishing food banks and bake sales. Keweenaw Gluttony also hopes to reduce the rising costs of food across various campus restaurants, like The Cafe and North Coast Grill & Deli. When asked about this initiative, Sams Witch had this to say: "Food is too damn expensive on campus. Do you really expect me to pay $7 for a dinky little cup of soup? A tiny morsel of burger? Ridiculous."

Keweenaw Sloth aims to inform students about healthy sleeping habits, including ways to increase their usual energy levels and stay energized throughout the day. The Daily Bull and Keweenaw Socialists will be helping with this initiative by founding RedBull, a unique new energy supplement. We're still hearing back from our lawyers about that one, but I can't think of any reason why it wouldn't work out!

Keweenaw Wrath aims to help students with anger management and stress reduction. Their primary goal is to establish a "rage room" on campus. The current location proposed will be somewhere within Fisher, as that tends to be where the most anger comes from during classes.

Keweenaw Greed aims to help less fortunate students cover their tuition bills. They will also be educating students on scholarships and FAFSA registration through a newsletter titled "What Koubek Doesn't Want You To Know". A group GoFundMe will be created to help cover the costs associated with this initiative.

Finally, Keweenaw Envy aims to help students work on self-esteem and the dangers of societal expectations. They will be giving weekly talks about the dangers of social media, modern beauty, gender roles and expectations, and other topics that may cause image issues within the student body. Be on the lookout for their upcoming maid dress competition!

We look forward to seeing how these new initiatives help the students of MTU!
