The below are selected diary entries, believed to have been written by [name changed for legal reasons] "Hurricane Diana" and procured by subpoena from the Manhattan District Attorney's office's Wattpad page, detailing her involvement with [name also changed for legal reasons] "Orange Man".

[March 17, 2019]

Dear Diary,

As you know, I have always been hungry for powerful men. There's just something about their commanding presence that makes me weak in the knees. So, when I received an invitation to meet Orange Man for a night of fun and pleasure, I was beyond excited.

I had heard rumors about his preferences, but I was confident that I would impress. I spent hours getting ready for our meeting, carefully selecting the perfect outfit to excite a man of his caliber. I settled on a figure-hugging dress that showed off my assets and a pair of sky-high heels that made my legs look miles long.

When I arrived at his hotel, Orange Man greeted me himself. "Hurricane, it's great to see you," he said, his hair standing tall and powerful. "Are you ready for a night you'll never forget?"

I nodded eagerly, my heart racing with anticipation. I could almost taste the tension between us. We chatted for a while, and I couldn't help but feel a little giddy at the thought of being in his presence.

But things took a turn for the worse when Trump asked me if I had ever "heard of a place called Kentucky Fried Chicken?". "What? Are you serious?" I asked, my disappointment clear in my voice.

"Of course, it's my favorite place," he replied, a smile on his face.

I couldn't believe it. Here I was, expecting a night of luxury and indulgence, and Orange Man wanted to take me to a fast-food chain.

As we sat in the tacky restaurant, surrounded by neon lights and greasy chicken, I couldn't help but shake my head in disgust. But Orange Man's excitement and lust for chicken were palpable. He ordered a family size bucket with all the sides, and his eyes lit up as the cashier handed him the greasy, crumpled box.

But it was the way he devoured the chicken that really disgusted me. He took huge bites, smacking his lips and getting gravy all over his face. Grease dripped down his chin, and he didn't seem to care.

He tore into the chicken with such gusto that I couldn't help but feel a little nauseous. It was like watching a wild animal tear apart its prey.

"This is the best chicken in town!" he exclaimed, his face smeared with gravy, as he wiped his hands on his pants.

I couldn't help but roll my eyes at his enthusiasm. I had hoped for a night of passion and excitement, but all I got was a shitty bucket of chicken.

As we finished our meal and said our goodbyes, I left the restaurant unhappy and unfulfilled, having hoped for so much more, realizing now while writing this, that maybe powerful men aren't all they're cracked up to be.

Yours truly, HD <3
