The Best Strawberry Songs

MP3 Jockey

If you were to ask me to define my music taste, I'd probably tell you alternative and happy pop/rock (artists like Dayglow, JAWNY, Claire Rosincrantz). But there was a trend I noticed in my music- a surprising number of the song titles involved the word "Strawberry", even when it made no sense. So I went on a deep dive through Spotify to compile all the songs I could find with "Strawberry" in the title, and have compiled some of the best here, ranked against each other on a scale from 1-5 Berries entirely based on personal preference. Since these are all 5 Berry bangers on an absolute scale, the rating here is a ranking of the selected.

Strawberry Chainsaw - JAWNY 🍓🍓🍓🍓🍓

Told you JAWNY was on here. This is the one that sparked this whole search. It's poppy with rock flavors, bright, and makes you want to snap right along. The back track is simple and repeating, but it varies throughout enough to be interesting for the two-and-a-half minutes. A feel-good addition to any playlist.

Strawberry Blond - Mitski 🍓🍓🍓🍓

Warning: listening to this might give you the urge to dance through the woods alone or with your partner like fantasy elves or fairies- and love every second of it with simple childlike glee. It's folksie, with strings and flutes and a vocalist who sounds like she could be a wood nymph with a side gig. Suffice to say, I love this one, and if anyone knows where I can get hour-long instrumentals that sound like those in this song please let me know, I beg of you.

Strawberry Mentos - Leanna Firestone 🍓🍓🍓

A soft, moderate tempo, and very sweet love song, this one has a lot of acoustic and drum backing and vocals that are intricate while never failing to be beautiful. This would've earned 4 berries on the absolute Berry scale, but it got an extra Berry because I know Leanna Firestone from her song Smitten, which is an absolute banger and one of the best absolutely gushing, syrupy sweet, lovey-dovey songs that exists that actually describes a cute and healthy relationship. Apparently, that's like Leanna Firestone's brand, and I am so here for it.

Strawberries & Creamin' - Yung Gravy 🍓🍓

So full disclosure, I dip my toes into hip-hop and rap somewhat regularly. I'm a fan of the classics, of course, but I'm also a sucker for the sheer lyricism that modern groups like Coast Contra excel at. Strawberries & Creamin' is no lyrical masterpiece, but has a great flow and rhythm. Is it a Dr. Pepper ad? Absolutely. Does it slap anyways? Absolutely.

Intro (Strawberries) - Ninja Sex Party 🍓?

Don't put this on a playlist that your parents might listen to. Let me make sure you heard that: Don't put this on a playlist your parents might listen to. It's not really a song, just the intro to the album Strawberries & Cream, but it does manage to make me laugh each time I listen to it because it comes out of left field every time. Absolutely great to throw in the middle of a playlist to see if anyone else is paying attention.

Straw-Buh-Buh-Buh-Buh-Berry Shortcake - Strawberry Shortcake 🍓

What the heck is a kid's show doing with such an absolute banger of a theme song? The electric guitar, the drums, the chorus (which may just be one voice recorded and layered on?) combine to make a bop. The perfect song to throw in right after the Ninja Sex Party.

Stay tuned for the worst of the bunch.

One links to the playlist, the other two only lie. Choose Wisely.
