Campus Inclusivity Plan Introduces 2 Other Bathroom Alignments

Crazy Leftist Diversity and Inclusion Crowd

Michigan Technological University always strives to create a safe, inclusive environment for all students. In the past years, administration has worked with the student body to help LGBTQ+ Huskies feel comfortable and accepted on campus. Along with the Pronouns In Bio system rolled out earlier this semester, plans are currently underway to establish more gender neutral restrooms around campus, as well as 2 new previously unintroduced bathroom alignments: Gender Good and Gender Evil.

In collaboration with multiple pride organizations across campus, such as the Center for Diversity and Inclusion, Keweenaw Pride, and the entire Forestry program, administration has begun to formulate a few locations to place these bathrooms to best accommodate students of all gender, sexuality, class, and alignment. As is common with most aligned bathrooms, the ones to be introduced at tech will not require you to roll for stealth before entering, as it was decided after a 2 hour meeting that doing so would indeed be an ADA violation (as if we need any more).

Supporters of the campaign commend its inclusion of otherwise underrepresented groups: "Most campuses only support gender neutral people" said one anonymous interviewee "What about the people like me who like stealing candy from babies and merging without using my blinker? Or my friend who was an eagle scout? Where would she go?? I'm proud of my university for being so progressive." Others are supportive, but believe it is not enough. Complaints include the idea that separating bathrooms into "good, neutral, and evil" lacks nuance in moral alignment. Further discussion has suggested adding 9 more bathroom types, however administration remains dismissive.

Transition (heh) to the new bathroom system is to begin this following Spring, along with the new Fisher Waterpark and Greater McNair Parking Lot™. Discussion has also been circulating about a commemorative "group pissing session" set to happen during the first weekend after classes start to celebrate this monumental Diversity Win.
