When was the last time you actually had to think to read an article? I bet never, but there are nay-sayers out there that like to think that because they have, they are awesome. If you are one of those people, this article is not for you. Since you already had this experience, let someone else think for once. If you are still reading this article, congratulations you are officially awesome. Throughout the article words may appear different than normal. Ekil this, and they will get progressively tougher. So most of this article will be preparing your mind for a paragraph full of sdrow spelled sdrawkcb. Ready or not, here it semoc!

This is the story of Namhsferf, the freshman. He was a typical dik, did well in school, and got decent sedarg. He played in a lot of sports and was a pot athlete. But one day he accidentally tripped

New "Puppy Cannon" Proves Excellent at Demoralizing Enemies

By Bryne Judy ~ Daily Bull

Military officials have been abuzz exclusive interview with Jim and the lately with talk of the figure known as "The Guy", inventors of these devices. Several of the latest series of weapons to be made, the "Devastator" series mid-range personal cannons which use, literally, live ammunition. The ammunition is the key point of the effectiveness of the gun, sources say, and the key to its unique success. This gun, unlike all previous models, is not meant to strike at the enemy but rather at what is most dear to them (actually being shot with this device causes little physical damage aside from making something of a mess of the target's clothing and psyche).

Some how I don't think that there'll be many dogs signing up for military service after this. I could be wrong, but...

We of the Bull were able to secure an idea actually came from watching the "101 Dalmatians" movie with The Guy. The movie kinda sucked, man, but when it got to the point where that villain lady was standing over a bunch of cowering puppies laughing evilly I thought to myself "Dude, that is wicked. People would be so ripped up on the inside if that bitch just started stepping on those things."

Bull- "What effect do these things have on those shot by them?"

The Guy- "After a few hits from one of these babies, even battle hardened soldiers will fall to their knees and scream WHY GOD WHY, arms held to the sky. There's really nothing like knowing you are the Cutest ammunition ever. Even more fun to load it, don'cha think?

direct cause of death of an adorable little animal, soaked in its blood. The real beauty of it is that the force of the impact acts a lot like a rubber bullet and tear into one, causing a lot of pain but leaving the target alive and, physically, well. They can use targets resistant to the puppy rounds we just load them with baby kittens or koalas or something."

Bull- "As hard as it may be to believe with such a perfect weapon, we've heard that a few people like PETA protested initially. Have you had any trouble with them?"

Jim- "Not anymore. There were a few groups of those PETA hippies holding up signs and dancing around in front of our office at first, but a series of well aimed shots from our babies reduced them to sobbing wrecks real quick. We haven't heard from those treehuggers since."

Many hope the non-lethal guns will spell a new era of war where not even a single, precious human life is lost on the battlefield.

Somehow I picture the toilet flush sounding like OMNOMNOMNOM
